

Janice Green

President, JOHSPA

Mrs. Janice Green is an Occupational Safety and Health Professional and a Human Resource Practitioner employed to the Jamaica National Group.

She completed her Masters in Occupational Safety Health at the ILO/University of Turin, Italy. Mrs. Green did her undergrad studies in Human Resources Management at the University of Technology, Jamaica. At the Mona School of Business, University of the West Indies, Jamaica, she completed post graduate studies where she attained a Master in Business Administration.

Mrs. Green is actively involved in volunteerism. She currently serves as a Justice of the Peace for the parish of St. Catherine and was a former Board Director for the St. Catherine Cooperative Credit Union and now serves on the Board of EduCom Cooperative Credit Union and its sub-committees. Despite her extremely busy schedule, she is involved in the mentorship programme at the University of Technology. Mrs. Green is a member of the Society for Human Resources Management, the Human Resources Management Association of Jamaica. A member of the International Commission on Occupational Health, where she serves on three of the ICOH Scientific Committees – Accident Prevention, Work Organization and Psychological Factors, and Musculoskeletal Disorders.

It is her belief that through transformational leadership, partnering and relationship building with a cross section of local and international stakeholders, Jamaicans will realize the vision for the country; "Jamaica, the place of choice to live, work, raise families and do business".
